

Academic Strategies Fall 2017

Sequence of English Courses

* Reading and Writing Review (for new students): Intensive reading and writing review before retaking the placement test.

* Portfolio Revision Workshop (for students who did not pass ENG 093/096): Provides support for students who have submitted complete portfolios that have not quite met the course abilities. At the end of the course, the student's portfolio and final grade are reassessed.

Other Academic Strategies Courses

|  |   |   |
|--|---|---|
| Credit-Level General/Humanities/Liberal ArtsElective | ENG 173Perspectives in theHumanities(3 hours) | Students utilize a variety of thinking and reading strategies to explore literature, philosophy, history, social sciences, and fine arts.Recommended for students needing to build skills prior to Comp and students earning an ENG 096 grade in the C-range. |
|--|---|---|

* In addition to being a G/H/LA elective at Tunxis, ENG 173 transfers to CCSU as Arts/Humanities

|  |   |   |
|--|---|---|
| Credit-Level General/Liberal Arts Elective | CSS 101First Year Experience(3 hours) | FYE prepares students to develop their own plan for academic, personal, and professional success.Required for new students in their first year. |
|--|---|---|

* In addition to being a G/LA elective at Tunxis, CSS 101 transfers to CCSU as a General Elective